

Summer Staff Bios.

Joe Morris – 420 Race Team Coach

School: Yale 2012

Coaching: 4 years (2 with AYC)

Hometown: Annapolis

Joe started sailing age 7, and has grown up sailing in the AYC junior program. He has raced optis, 420s, 29ers, I-420s, J22s, and laser radials. Joe was Severn School's sailing team captain for 3 years. A four time national champion. Joe is now partaking in collegiate collegiately, and will be sailing 470s in Germany and Denmark when not coaching this summer.

Willie McBride – 420 Development Team

Santa Barbara, California

University of California at Berkeley

Willie will be 18 this summer, and has been sailing for the last 8 years. A Santa Barbara (So Cal) native, Willie will be going into his sophomore year at Cal, Berkeley where he studies engineering, and is the A skipper on the sailing team. After learning to race double handed boats on the 29er, he carried his crewing skills over to the 420 and has finished in the top four at the International Orange Bowl, the C420 North Americans, and two C420 Midwinters. His favorite sailing experience was at the ISAF Youth Worlds, where he represented the US in the boys, double handed discipline. In the last year, Willie has run practices for his college team, in addition to coaching several bay area, high school sailing teams. When he is not sailing or studying, he practices mixed martial arts, and enjoys hanging out at the beach. Look for him this summer after youth program hours, rigging up in the boat park to go practice with AYC's Joe Morris for their 470 campaign.

Dave Schellie – 420 Development Team

Graduating Severn School in June

Roger Williams Class of 13

My hometown in McLean Virginia

This is Dave's first year coaching sailing. His sailing experience includes optis, and two summers of race team experience. He has also sailed on J105s since and was ten, and sails for the Severn School Sailing team.

Adrienne Patterson—420 Race Team

Adrienne Patterson is from Newport Beach, California and has sailed since she was five years old. Sailing has always been a passion of hers and she enjoys sharing her passion with young sailors. She graduated with an undergraduate degree from St. Mary's College of Maryland and will be receiving her Master of Arts in Teaching in June. During the four years at St. Mary's College, she competed in the Women's College circuit and participated in all four women's national championships. In 2007, the women's team won the Women's National Championship at Old Dominion University and Adrienne had the honor to accept the Quantum Female Sailor of the Year. She has sailed many different boats as a skipper and a crew: sabot, CFJ, club 420, I-420, and a Snipe. She has taught summer sailing in Newport Beach, California as well as in Larchmont, New York and she is looking forward to coaching the AYC sailors!

Jennifer Chamberlin—Green Fleet

Jennifer Chamberlin was born in Annapolis and grew up on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. She has sailed since she was very young on her family's log canoe and then in Tred Avon's junior program.

More recently, she is a member of the St. Mary's College Varsity team. This spring '09, she will graduate from St. Mary's College of Maryland, majoring in Economics. She has spent most of her summers teaching around the country, but looks forward to a summer on the Chesapeake.

Tonie Domino—Sea Squirts

Tonie grew up sailing at Indian Landing Boat Club in Millersville, MD. She joined the sailing team at Washington College. She earned her first varsity letter and the most improved player award her freshman year. Tonie was a versatile member of the team, and crewed in co-ed and women's events at both the open and intersectional levels. She graduated from Washington College summa cum laude with a B.S. in Biology and minors in Chemistry and Psychology, winning the Doris T. Bell '50 award for the senior female with the highest cumulative average who had won a varsity letter during the year. Her plans include attending veterinary school. She brings to AYC her lifelong love of sailing and a decade of experience working with children of all ages in many different settings, including time as a lifeguard, camp counselor, substitute sailing instructor, and nanny.

Kaylee Schwitzer – Creek Critters

Kaylee began sailing when she was seven, and sailed for five years on the SSA Opti Racing Team. Last year, she began sailing at Annapolis Yacht Club, where she won the 2008 CBYRA High Point Top Girl award; Kaylee was the female skipper with the best 420 record on the Chesapeake Bay. She has raced Optis, 420s, FJs, J22s, and J105s. Kaylee is a current member of the Severn Sailing Team and is a rising junior. This summer will be her first summer coaching, and when she is not coaching, she will be sailing with the 420 Race Team.
