SAILING INSTRUCTIONS

Brought to you by the soberest (whomever we could rouse), members of the AYC Race Committee.

These sailing instructions pertain to the race. We assume you already know the basics of sailing, like PEGF (pointy end goes first), RRR (red, right, returning), YOR (your other right [anything]), HTL (hurl to leeward), COE (comb over effect) and don't get your rudder stuck in the mud.

Rules: We are trying to be fully compliant with current DOJ directives. (We make them up as we go.)

Entries: Sign in at AYC's (still new) (and still less crispy) Main Club house before the Skip'er's Meeting. You must be present and awake to win.

Notices to competitors: The RC is not in a condition to notice any competitors, but if we do, we will do so at the Sk'ppers Meeting or on the radio during the race.

Changes to Sailing Instructions: Only when necessary to confuse the competitors and hopefully the judges.

Signals Made Ashore: There won't be any. However, look for a bunch of RC members huddled together on a small power boat on a mooring in the Annapolis harbor. They may decide to hoist something.

Schedule: Close of Registration: One minute after the last request, accompanied by the appropriate gratuity.

Ski'pers Meeting: Around 12:15 or when the RC is ready.

Racing begins: Listen up at the Slippers meeting. We'll mention a few times and you can start at one of them.

Racing Ends: This is Annapolis. Sailboat racing never ends.

Classes, Time of Signals & Courses: Still in a state of flux. Bobby went to Hawaii and will not be awake, so the rest of the RC is trying to figuring out what direction they should send our sailors. Once again, listen up at the Skip'ers Meeting and we will try to give some less confusing instructions.

Courses: It is pizza and beer, not dinner at the Ritz!

Starts: As many as is necessary till you get it right.

Starting line: Between the orange flag on the little Motor Boat with a bunch of RC members huddled together on a mooring in the Annapolis harbor, and an orange mark on the low rent side of the harbor hopefully in sight of the bunch of RC members huddled together on the little Motor Boat on a mooring in the Annapolis harbor.

Once again- listen up at the Sk'ppers meeting.

Course Change: Hopefully in the near future!!

Individual Recall: The AYC Intelligence Committee may interrogate competitors to determine which individuals are capable of recalling events of the previous 24 hours. The good news is we have not been able to find a judge to do anything with the information.

General Recall: This is a navel event. We do not consult with Generals.

Shorten Course: Individual captains may choose to return to port at any time.

Postponement: Without a schedule what's to postpone?

Finish Line: The finishing line is between a staff with an orange flag in the middle of the least hungover members of the Race Committee huddled together on AYC's (still new) (and still less crispy) Main Clubhouse and the flag pole at the Annapolis City Marina.

Protests: The RC is into pizza and beer today and paperwork of any kind is frowned upon. See the penalty section for possible infringement rewards.

Time Limit: There is none. However, the RC strongly suggests arriving back at the Club before the pizza gets cold. And the RC will stop recording finishes when we decide the pizza is getting cold.

Penalties: The RC believes it has the ability to pardon any infraction of any rule on any one we hold near and dear. If you do not fall into that category, we strongly suggest you break no rules!

Scoring: This is a family event and a recuperative period for a lot of people. Scoring (or trying to), is frowned upon.

Safety: Just remember, a trip to the emergency room means being treated by staff that probably were out last night as well, so be careful out there. Please wear PFDs and don't run around outside the cockpit. You must also have at least two other 100 lbs buddies on board the boat with you - the idea being any two suckers still aboard can haul an overboard crew, even hungover.

Prizes: Will be awarded at the Frostbite Awards party. The number of awards is based on what the RC can reconstruct from the scribble on the finish sheets. A special prize may be given to anyone who can convince the RC where the apostrophe really should go in "Skippers" (or not).
